

This rather grainy photograph is a picture of the church in the mid 19th century with the original extension, and in the background the cottage where the very first members met together.

At that time the church seated over 400 people and three services were held each Sunday

